

Are you a Korean American aspiring to become a teacher or just starting your teaching career? Join KAERA's yearlong mentoring program designed to support and empower you on your educational journey!

KAERA Teacher Mentoring Program

Empowering Korean American Educators for a Brighter Future

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

- Preservice teachers enrolled in PK-12 teacher preparation programs (undergraduate, master's, or alternative certification) in the U.S.
- In-service teachers with less than 3 years of experience in U.S. PK-12 classrooms

HOW TO PARTICIPATE?

- Sign up by January 3rd, 2025:

<https://go.unl.edu/kaerateacher>

- Get matched with an experienced Korean American teacher or leader

If you have any questions, please email Dr. Kyunghwa Lee (kyunghwa@uga.edu)

KAERA Teacher Mentoring Taskforce
Kyunghwa Lee (Professor, U of Georgia)
Taeyeon Kim (Assistant Professor, U of Nebraska Lincoln)
Sunghwan Byun (Assistant Professor, North Carolina State U)
Hyunjin Choi (Ph.D., Teachers College, Columbia University)